Sisterhood Fashion Show

January 25, 2023

Just a few more days and 2022 will conclude and we'll enter 2023. Many of us will be glad the year is over and are looking forward to a better one ahead. For some of us 2022 has been a difficult year; no denying that. Life has ups and downs and they are never consistently just one way. There is a topic I will be speaking about this Friday evening that addresses this issue. We often feel somewhat powerless to direct our lives to make things better whether there is an illness or some other problematic circumstance. The one thing that can never be taken away from each of us is the ability to choose how to react to the situation. Some of us feel that life is a haphazard series of events beyond our control and some of us find the way to trust God. Proverbs 3:6 says acknowledge God in all your paths and He will direct your ways. Is it possible to trust God that everything is ultimately in His control? We can't speak for anyone else, but we choose to trust that somehow, someday God is in control and things will work out for the best. Please consider these ideas and see if they in any way are a more positive way to handle life's constant unexpected changes. May 2023 be a really great year for us, the Jewish people, and the whole world.

Joe & Robin

Our President

Dear Friends,

Happy (secular) New Year. December was a great month activity wise. If you missed the Shabbat dinner with the Shalom Roamers (a Jewish RV Club), you missed a wonderful evening. Captain Regina Behar and her able side kick Alberto led a team of able soldiers consisting of Janet Bloom, Lou Blass, Karen Miller, Ava and David McKean (Ava cooked and David sliced), Rocky Coleman and Joan Mager. If I left anyone out, I apologize. This was followed by a baby naming where little Bella Milchman was given her Hebrew name joining the people of Israel. Next, we celebrated Hanukkah with the lighting of many Hanukkiahs and latkes by Chef Peter. Joe and his band of musicians provided the entertainment. What a night it was. We rounded out the month with Movies on Christmas Day organized by our film producer Michele Sobel and Chef Peter provided his gourmet Sobel Dogs with all the trimmings. All this of course was in addition to the opportunity to worship in a warm friendly atmosphere, led by Joe Goldovitz and Robin. They are really second to none. We are indeed blessed. See you at services.

Prez Jack

Our Sisterhood

We had 22 sisters who braved the thunderstorm and attended the Sisterhood Chanukah party. We enjoyed lunch from TooJay's, played Chanukah bingo, and did a Chanukah word search. There were lots of bingo prizes.

Mahjongg cards are for sale until January 7th. There are forms available at the temple. Please contact Marsha Norden at mnorden@comcast.net for any other information.

FASHION SHOW! JANUARY 25th at 10 a.m. Please contact Karen Mandel for tickets. karenbmandel@gmail.com. We need your help to make this event successful.

BASKETS! HELP! If you haven't donated a basket yet to the fashion show, there's still time! Please contact Karen Miller at karen4701@aol.com for more information.

We are in the process of planning our meeting for February.

Hope to see you soon!
Ava

Thank you so much to all the members of the Men's Club who worked so hard through the month of December. Every time we had a social event, they were all there to set up tables and chairs and take them down. Our social groups really appreciate the help you give us. If you want to know what is going on, just ask them. They are too tired to put it in writing.

We will be studying the following sidraote this January:

- 1/7. Vayechi, Gen. 47:48 -- 50:26
Haftarah - 1 kings 2:1 -12
- 1/14. Shemot, Ex.1:1 -- 6:1
Haftarah - Isaiah - 27:6 - 28:13 & 29:22 - 23
- 1/21. Vaera, Ex. 6:2 -- 9:35
Haftarah - Ezek. 28:25 - 29:21
- 1/28. Bo, Ex.10:1 -- 13:16
Haftarah - Jer. 46:13-28

Please join us at 10 AM each Saturday morning, as we nosh a little, pray a little and study our ancient past through the pages of our Torah.
